"Life Begins When you Do"

In her book Life Begins When you Do, Mary Ann Radmacher* says that life is impartial and that our "personal, subjective life (dreams, satisfactions, contentment, achievements, vision, fullness, passion, aspirations) begins (only) when we begin". Hence we need to embrace our purpose each minute of our life:

"If you would dream it, BEGIN it.

If you have an idea, OPEN it.

If there is longing, ACKNOWLEDGE it.

If there is mission, COMMIT it.

If there is daring, DO it.

If there is love, SPEAK it.

If there is resource, USE it.

If there is abundance, SHARE it."

These guidelines I have lived by since I assumed office last July 1, 2010. Of course, there were ups and downs but if I allowed the downs to discourage me or postponed my hopes and dreams just because there were obstacles, then I would have accomplished nothing. I chose not to quit and not to give up in the face of adversity.

The standard for our Club has been raised when we became Most Outstanding Club last year. Though we did not repeat this year, we remain in the top 5 Outstanding Clubs of the District. We also received a major award (Best in International Service), a special award (Best in Literacy) and an RI Presidential Citation with Distinction. Most important of all, we achieved the goals we set out to do (except for the housing project) and we made a difference in the lives of so many people – children and adults alike.

The commitment to "Serve above Self" lives on. To every one who made our term exciting & fruitful, I dedicate this song by the Carpenters - "Sometimes not often enough, we reflect upon the good things. And those thoughts always center around those we love. And I think about those people who mean so much to me & for so many years have made me so very happy. And I count the times I have forgotten to say thank you and just how much I love them"

**Mary Ann Radmacher is a poet and author. Her statement of purpose - Live with Intention: Walk to the edge. Listen hard. Laugh. Play with abandon. Practice wellness. Continue to learn. Choose with no regret. Appreciate your friends. Lead or follow a leader. Do what you love. Live as if this is all there is.*

THE JOURNEY

(by Lea Salonga)

Half the world is sleeping, half the world's awake
half can hear their hearts beat, half just hear them break
I am but a traveler, in most every way
Ask me what you want...to know

What a journey it has been and the end is not in sight
But the stars are out tonight and they're bound to guide my way
When they're shining on my life, I can see a better day
I won't let the darkness in, what a journey it has been.

I have been to sorrow, I have been to bliss
Where I'll be tomorrow, I can only guess
Through the darkest desert
Through the deepest snow, Forward always forward, I go.

What a journey it has been and the end is not in sight
But the stars are out tonight and they're bound to guide my way
When they're shining on my life I can see a better day
I won't let the darkness in, what a journey it has been...

Forward, always forward...Onward, always up...
Catching every drop of hope In my empty cup

What a journey it has been and the end is not in sight
But the stars are out tonight and they're bound to guide my way
When they're shining on my life I can see a better day
I won't let the darkness in, what a journey it has been...

What a journey it has been

PRAYER

How blessed we are, Lord, that You have brought our club this far. Tonight we commemorate the founding of the Rotary Club of New Manila Heights and we thank You for having sustained our club throughout the years. We thank You for those who chartered the club and for those who mentored us over time. We thank You for the many opportunities and resources that You have blessed this club with. Most of all, we thank You for all the men and women who have been part of this club. Some have left us and some are still with us. Each of them have played a role in making this club what it is today.

We ask for Your continued blessings on each one of us. We entrust to You all those who will govern us in the future. May they all be attuned to Your will so that guided by Your wisdom, we may continue to do good for others and serve above self. We thank You for all those who walked ahead of us and for all those who have served as Presidents, Officers and Directors through the years. Thank You for giving them selflessness as they served. May all our members desire to really serve without counting the cost and make a positive difference in the lives of others.

All glory be to You, O Lord now and forever. Amen.
