MAGAZINE MONTH

April is designated as Magazine month to recognize and promote the official RI magazine, The Rotarian, and the Rotary regional magazines (Philippine Rotary Magazine included), that make up the Rotary World Magazine Press.

From the ABCs of Rotary, it is stated that The Rotarian was started in 1911 as the "medium to communicate with Rotarians and advance the program and Object of Rotary". Its primary goal is to "support and promote key programs of Rotary", disseminate information (e.g., the RI theme, philosophy of the RI President, major meetings, and officially designated months in the Rotary calendar). It is not only a forum for discussing Rotary-related or topics of general interest but also a source of ideas from the mundane (programs for Rotary club meetings and district conferences) to the universal Rotary ideals of international fellowship, goodwill and understanding. Rotarians all over the world report on their activities and share how they are involved in the Five Avenues of Service.

In addition to The Rotarian, there are 30 regional magazines printed in 23 languages with a combined circulation of 750,000 copies. Our local version is the Philippine Rotary Magazine which is published monthly. Subscription to this publication is mandatory and non-compliance can be a cause for termination of membership. The Editor-in-Chief is Mar Un Ocampo III who recently resigned. PRM is presently looking for someone (preferably a PDG) who will replace him.

How many of us actually read the Philippine Rotary Magazine? It contains reports on activities undertaken by the Rotary clubs in the ten RI districts in the Philippines. It features the different District Governors and their thrusts and programs for the year. It features successful programs of the different clubs in the Philippines. It announces the latest RI programs as well.

For the past year, PRM has been promoting lifetime subscriptions. Our club presently has 4 (PDG Mar, IPP Boone, PBaby & PN Alex A). If we get 30 of this, we will be given a free Paul Harris. Hopefully, starting this month, we become aware that there is a Philippine Rotary Magazine and enjoy reading it.

California Dreamin'

(Mamas and the Papas)

All the leaves are brown, All the leaves are brown
And the sky is grey, And the sky is grey
I've been for a walk, I've been for a walk
On a winters day, On a winters day
I'd be safe and warm, I'd be safe and warm
If I was in L.A., If I was in L.A.
California dreamin', California dreamin'
On such a winter's day

Stopped into a church
I passed along the way
Well, I got down on my knees
(Got down on my knees)
And I pretend to pray
(I pretend to pray)
You know the preacher likes the cold
(Preacher likes the cold)
He knows I'm gonna stay
(Knows I'm gonna stay)
California dreamin', California dreamin'
On such a winter's day
(INSTRUMENTAL)

All the leaves are brown, All the leaves are brown
And the sky is grey, And the sky is grey
I've been for a walk, I've been for a walk
On a winter's day, On a winter's day
If I didn't tell her, If I didn't tell her
I could leave today, I could leave today
California dreamin', California dreamin'
On such a winters day
California dreaming
On such a winters day
California dreaming
On such a winters day

Crossroads

PDG Mario R. Nery

The Rotary Leadership Institute (RLI)

We forwarded to Pres. Baby the invitation to have some of our members join the RLI sessions on April 16 . I wanted to personally explain what RLI was but I had to leave for an out-of-town job for the Red Cross, which I could not refuse.

The RLI is not an agency of Rotary, but it is recognized as a training partner, at least for the moment. It was organized by some Rotarians in the United States who felt that providing relevant and professional training to Rotarians would help strengthen the organization. It is privately funded. It was brought here just a few years ago. I was invited to be a trainee, but I ended up as a faculty member because they could not get anyone from our district to talk about Vocational Service and Ethics in Rotary.

What do we get out of it? For me, two things. First, you get exposed to communication techniques from the experts. I have been speaking in training sessions for over thirty years but I found many new ways of being an effective speaker, proving correct the adage that one really never stops to learn, for as long as you have an open mind. Second, you get this tremendous sense of satisfaction when you are able to contribute to the development of communication skills of many others. Part of that satisfaction is the knowledge that whatever you have shared with others become part of their own lives, and that when they share it with others as well, you will then have something in common with many others you may not even know.

I suggest that if the registration book is not yet filled (because they will not accept more than forty at a time) , you apply to join. I do not think you will ever regret it.

THE WORLD NEEDS MEN

- Who cannot be bought
- Whose word is their bond
- Who put character above wealth
- Who possesses opinions and a will
- Who are larger than their vocation
- Who do not hesitate to take chances
- Who will not lose their individuality in a crowd
- Who will be as honest in small things as in great things
- Who will make no compromise with wrong
- Whose ambitions are not confined to their own selfish desires
- Who will not say they do it "because everybody does it"
- Who are true to their friends through good report and evil report, in adversity as well as in prosperity
- Who do not believe that shrewdness, cunning and hard-headedness are the best qualities for winning success
- Who are not ashamed or afraid to stand for the truth when it is unpopular.
- Who can say "no" with emphasis, although the rest of the world says "yes"

RI Presidents

In August 1910, Rotarians gathered in Chicago for their first national convention. The existing 16 clubs unified as the National Association of Rotary Clubs and elected Rotary founder Paul P. Harris as the organization’s first president. Harris served two terms – the only president to do so.

Other notable presidents include Canadian E. Leslie Pidgeon (1917-18), the first from outside the United States; Sydney W. Pascall (1931-32), the first from Great Britain; and Maurice Duperrey (1937-38), the first from continental Europe. In July 1940, the first president from South America, Armando de Arruda Pereira, took office.

The presidents of Rotary International are elected for one-year terms and must have served as a club president, district governor, and member of the RI Board of Directors. In addition to leadership experience, RI presidents bring a commitment to Service Above Self as well as the culture and pride of their home club and region.

PRAYER

Tonight we gather once again as a Club that is formed to bring hope to those in our local communities who are hungry, in need of health care, in need of training and tools for them to become more literate or empowered to lead and serve. You have made it possible for us to do this in fellowship with our fellow Rotarians with whom we enjoy bonds of friendship and good will. May we whom You have created, molded and shared through our experiences, become Your instruments and bridges to others. May we learn to see Your face in the men, women and children we shared our lives and blessings with. We make this prayer through Your Son, Jesus. Amen.

THOUGHT OF THE DAY

"Those that I fight, I do not hate. Those that I guard, I do not love."

~ YEATS

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger."

~Prov. 15:1

Paul P. Harris

Rotary Club of Chicago

“Rotarians are very much more favorably disposed toward action than they are toward words.”

— The Rotarian , November 1912

Historic Moments -- The Rotarian through time

Rotary International News -- 12 January 2009

1911 - Rotary launches The National Rotarian (later The Rotarian) with Chesley Perry as editor. The first issue appears in January. The 12-page periodical includes an essay written by Paul Harris about the purpose of Rotary clubs, announcements of newly chartered clubs, and other club news items.

From its humble beginnings as a 12-page periodical, The Rotarian has grown into an award-winning publication with a circulation of over 500,000, inspiring the creation of a host of Rotary regional magazines.

The first issue of The National Rotarian appeared in January 1911. It included news items from existing clubs, announcements of new clubs, and an essay written by Paul P. Harris, in which he discussed the purpose of Rotary clubs.

As president of Rotary, Harris, along with secretary Chesley R. Perry, launched the publication as a way to share information with a growing number of Rotarians. Perry was the magazine's first editor and held the position until 1928.

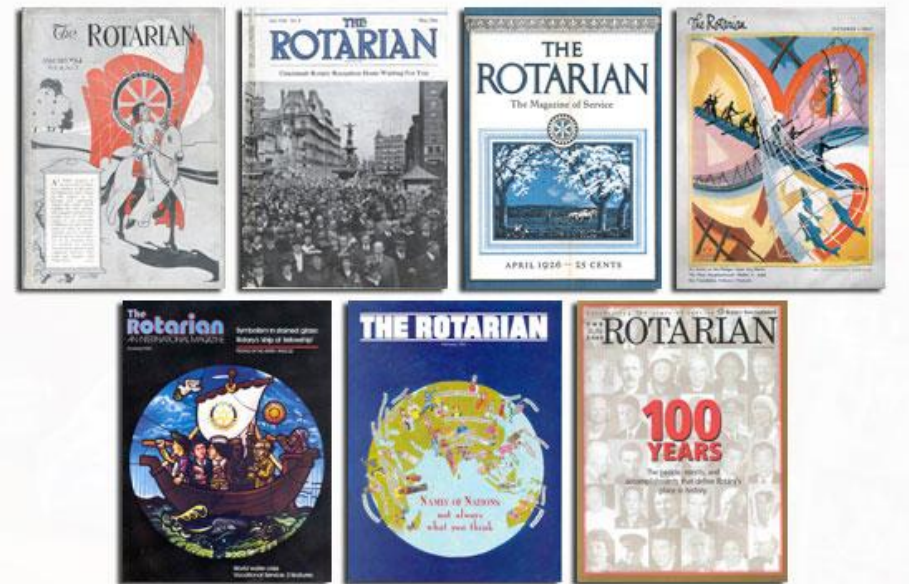

The formation of clubs in Canada and Great Britain and Ireland prompted the magazine to change its name to The Rotarian in 1912.

Early on, the magazine focused on business ethics, character development, and membership growth. Throughout the years, well-known critics and authors and popular artists and photographers contributed their work to its covers and pages.

In addition to The Rotarian, the Rotary World Magazine Press produces 31 Rotary regional magazines. These publications are produced independently by Rotarians, distributed in more than 130 countries, and published in over 20 languages.

The first regional magazine was published in Great Britain and Ireland in 1915. In the 1920s, a regional magazine in Australia became the predecessor of Rotary Down Under and the first regional publication to gain RI approval.

Quote of the Month: Moving onward

Rotary International News -- 23 March 2011

Armando de Arruda Pereira, 1940-41 RI president Rotary Images

Each month, we highlight a piece of Rotary history and share an inspirational quote from past Rotary leaders. March's quote:

"Just as Rotary itself can never keep its place unless it is constantly growing, so each individual Rotary Club cannot afford to stand still while the stream of life moves onward."

— Armando de Arruda Pereira, 1940-41 RI president, in The Rotarian, February 1941
